Discover the majestic history of dendera and the temple of hathor with Iberotel lotus

Cruise the Nile to one of Luxor's city hidden gems with Iberotel Lotus and visit one of the best-preserved temples in Egypt "Dendera" which is dedicated to the goddess Hathor. Hathor was among the most important and popular deities in ancient Egypt. She was associated with music, joy, dance, and motherhood, she was also known as the lady of the sky. One of the primary celebrations that took place at Dendera was for the Egyptian New Year. The night before the new year, a statue of Hathor was brought out on a shrine and placed on the roof of the temple to receive the sun's first rays, which symbolically renewed and the rejuvenated the goddess.

The Lotus boat was built in Cairo in 1989 & fully renovated in October 2022 as a floating pavilion and restaurant that offers an exceptional & luxurious model of the cruising restaurants in Luxor city to let you feel like a crowned pharaoh while tantalizing your taste buds in a unique royal atmosphere at the banks of the Nile.

Iberotel Lotus is considered the only boat in the city that offers this experience with a capacity up to 100 guests to accommodate smaller or larger groups depending on the type of event. Private parties, office gatherings, engagements, weddings, or birthdays. When it comes to mixing pleasure, business & family gathering in an elegant fine dining ambiance, Iberotel Lotus is the right choice.

Guests will cruise the riverbanks from Luxor to Dendarah with a guided tour of the Temple of Goddess Hathor. During the cruise, a superb lunch buffet will be served. During the Trip you will be taking in Luxor's historic monuments and sceneries, culminating in a final stop in front of Iberotel Luxor after sunset.

This most exclusive outlet has a splendid panoramic view of the River Nile and is surrounded by the beautiful natural landscape of Luxor. This relaxed vibe is carried through to our swimming pool, and sunbathing is encouraged on our sunny sundeck while you have your coffee break or while sipping your favorite drink from our bar.
